1. A concentration camp is located in the Ghencea suburb of Bucharest. Prisoners who have completed their prison terms are kept in this camp for further screening by officials of the Ministry of Interior.
2. A concentration camp has been established in the vicinity of Alexandria on the Alexandria-Bucharest highway. The camp is surrounded by a barbed wire fence and is composed of a number of wooden barracks. Officers of the Rumanian armed forces who have completed their prison terms, as well as officers of the reserve who have been arrested for various offenses, are incarcerated in this camp.
